Your Gateway to Utah's National Park Country!

Located just off Highway 12, New Western Motel offers a variety of rooms to fit your needs, from our newly renovated rooms to our family units that offer comfort for the family. Located in Panguitch, Utah, the New Western Motel serves as your gateway to Utah's stunning national parks! Enjoy the sights and views of the breathtaking amphitheatres of the famous Bryce Canyon National Park. See the amazing cliffs and canyons of the Capitol Reef National Park. View the spectacular array of scientific and historic formations in the Grand Staircase National Monument.

New Western Motel is located in the southwestern area of Utah in the Garfield and Kane counties. Thousands of delicately carved spires rise in brilliant colors from the amphitheatres of Bryce Canyon. Millions of years of wind, water and geologic mayhem have shaped and etched the pink cliffs at Bryce, which isn't actually a cayon but the eastern slope of the Paunsaguant Plateau.

Formerly Best Western Motel, now called New Western Motel

New Western Motel is also a convenient location to many of Utah's breathtaking sites and attractions. Visit the cliffs and canyons of the Zion National Park or the Capitol Reef National Park. See a full list of nearby area attractions and places to visit while staying at the New Western Motel.
